WHAT IS A DESTINATION WEDDING? TRAVEL AND EVENTS WITH STYLE TELLS US!

Text by Jaime Valdes-Reinch, Travel and Events With Style

Most people think a destination wedding is just combining travel with a wedding. This is true, but a destination wedding can be so much more! It is a chance to embrace new geographical surroundings, culture, and music. It can inspire different wedding themes, give new options for décor, and most of all, make the wedding a vacation instead of just a one day celebration. The idea of moving your wedding away from the comforts of home can be daunting, but having an experienced team working for you to take care of the details makes it worth the while.

Loressa & Stuart

MARRIED MAY 11, 2011, DREAMS RESORT PUERTO VALLARTA, MEXICO

"Stewart and I had been dating over 7 years and were engaged for 15 months when we finally tied the knot. We chose to have our wedding in the beautiful Puerto Vallarta Mexico—it had always been my dream to have a small destination wedding surrounded by our closest family and friends. Our wedding day was everything we could ever hope for. The ceremony took place on the beach, underneath a white canopy with the sun shining brightly and waves crashing in the background. After the ceremony we were greeted by the tastiest margaritas I have ever had and a private reception.

Travel and Events with Style was our choice to make our wedding dreams come true because of their professionalism and most importantly, their experience dealing with destination weddings. Trying to coordinate over 20 people to do anything is a task in itself, not to mention a week-long vacation in another country, but Jaime from Travel and Events was terrific when it came to alleviating any stress and helping the process move smoothly. If a problem did arise, she did everything in her power to fix it as soon as possible. Thanks to them, our day was perfect!" LORESSA
